Graduation 2017

Graduation will be June 16th for our Preschool & Kindergarten at 5:00pm. School will close 4:30pm. Please pick up your child early and be back by 4:45. We will have lite food afterwards for everyone, if anyone wants to sign up for food we will have a sign up on the front door. We encourage families to bring healthy dishes to our Graduation Party. If you have not paid yet for Cap & Gowns, please do so they were ordered.

I hope everyone enjoyed the Summer Camp Schedule. The kids will have a great balance of fun and learning. If you haven't let me know if you're here for summer and fall, please let me know A.S.A.P. Activity Fees due by June 23rd.

Mother's Day Muffins

All moms on May 12th, stop by and make sure you get a breakfast of a child made muffin, fruit and O.J in hand decorated bags by the children for their moms!

Fundraiser

Thank you to everyone who sold Popcorn, we were able to purchase mats and took out all rugs that hold germs! Thank you so much for everyone's help!!!

Red Cross

The Red Cross appreciated our last drive and we are having another June 20th at 12, please sign up if you can donate. If you cannot, please donate books to the book drive

The Jennifer Nizer Passion for Excellence Grant

In January, we wrote the JNPE Grant for the purchase of a new curriculum. MSDE is requiring in 2018 that all preschools have a mandated state-wide curriculum, not just for Kindergarten, but school-wide. We were informed that we were the recipient of the Grant!!!. We are very excited our school was picked and will receive our new curriculum "Teaching Strategies" in about a month for us to learn and start using in September 2017. This is second year of receiving and 4's and 5's will use!!!!

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find "filler" articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

Your business tag line here.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a bi-annual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
